

Wedding Packages & Pricing

At Meant to Bee Flower Farm, we create unique floral arrangements inspired by the seasons. We arrange your flowers by choosing the best of what's blooming in our fields the week of your wedding within your color palette. Because many of our flowers are grown locally, you will enjoy delicate heirloom varieties that are fragrant, fresh-picked, and arranged in our signature garden-style.

We are committed to transparent and flexible pricing so you can create a one-of-a-kind floral package while staying within your budget.

Ready to get started?

Submit an Order Form

Complete and submit our Order Form (next page) with as much information as available. Don't worry -- changes can still be made! Our design team just needs to get an idea of your vision for your wedding flowers.

Estimate

Within one (1) week of receiving your order form, we will send you an estimate based on the details you provided.

Contract and Deposit

Once you approve your estimate, we will send you a contract. This contract must be signed and sent back to us, along with a $500 non-refundable deposit. Once we receive both of these, your date will be reserved. Your deposit will apply toward your final balance. Please note: Until a signed contract and deposit are received, your date will not be reserved. Please submit ASAP to ensure availability!

Final Changes

Six (6) weeks prior to your event, we will be in touch to finalize your order. Additions, substitutions, and changes can be made at this time.

Final Payment

The remaining balance/final payment is due thirty (30) days before your wedding day. Please note: No floral changes can be made within thirty (30) days of your wedding date.
